A home makes a statement and this home makes a grand statement. A family home of generous proportions and refined finish. The downstairs flows with interconnecting spaces creating flexible options for any family, all open and bright but defined and generously apportioned. A grand staircase creates a focus in the home leading to generous bedrooms and the master suite. The master suite itself is the ultimate vestige of the grand statement this home makes, generous and open yet private and functional. A home design that ensures all efforts are rewarded.

A relaxed home-life is made much easier in a design with large living spaces for the whole family to spread out, the home is designed for such a lifestyle. With a very generous open area that combines the family, kitchen, meals and alfresco, there is plenty of breathing space to entertain the biggest of families, you can even rent some rooms out and be totally separate to them
