Situated on a large corner block just a few minutes stroll to St Francis College, this spacious family home will impress with its brilliant indoor-outdoor lifestyle. Warm, inviting and idyllically positioned, it captures the essence of quality family living with fantastic natural light and a great sense of privacy.

The interior layout has been cleverly designed to provide an easy-to-manage living environment with a well-proportioned open design and easy-care tiling throughout the main living area, and stunning bay windows infusing the home with natural light.

Effortlessly blending indoor and outdoor living, large glass slider doors frame the outdoor entertaining. Offering ample room for family gatherings, the large patio creates the perfect atmosphere for loved ones to gather whilst the kids play in the fully fenced, secure yard.

The master bedroom is spacious with the elegant feature of bay windows providing a glorious outlook to the streetscape outside. Featuring a large walk-in robe there is no shortage of storage, and with a well-appointed ensuite, it offers a comfortable haven for parents. Two additional large bedrooms are serviced by a family bathroom, perfectly finished with q
